To whom this may concern:

I worked with Suketu Nayak at Opsgility for a little over a year on multiple projects. He was our top go-to trainer in India as he could teach Azure in our custom Developer, IaaS and Big Data content to perfection! He consistently would hit our top tier in survey results and was the most dependable trainer we worked with. Many clients would request him after their initial class due to his vast real world knowledge of Azure. If he wasn't available during the dates a client requested, I would try to check their flexibility and encourage them to go for a week he was available because he was that good. He was always gracious and a pleasure to work with.

Thanks!
